Edward Levine is Of Counsel to the firm, and has been helping clients achieve their estate planning and wealth transfer objectives for over 40 years.

Ed's practice emphasizes sophisticated estate planning relating to trusts, estates, conservatorships, guardianships, non-profit tax-exempt organizations and estate and gift taxation. Ed is experienced in creating and implementing a wide variety of estate planning structures, including: generation-skipping transfer trusts; grantor retained annuity trusts; qualified personal residence trusts; family limited partnerships; life insurance trusts; private foundations; charitable lead trusts; charitable remainder trusts; qualified domestic trusts for non-citizen spouses; and special needs trusts.

Ed received his undergraduate degree from the University of California at Berkeley, after spending his last year of studies at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Ed received his Juris Doctor from Northwestern University School of Law (magna cum laude). Ed is a member of Los Angeles County and Beverly Hills Bar Associations, and is admitted to the State Bar of California.
